Both Boards Will Organize Next Friday, When Mayor Fisher Begins His Second Term

Alexandria's newly elected City Council will organize at a meeting Friday, September 1.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher will also begin his new term as mayor, his second in that office. Council will be formally organized by the election of a president, a vice president, a clerk and a messenger in each board.

In the Board of Aldermen, Henry K. Field, incumbent in the office of president, will not be the head of the higher board the following term owing to the fact that in the last election, Mr. Field was elected to serve in the common council from the second ward, he having moved from the third to the second ward, and it is regarded as likely that Francis F. Marbury will succeed President Field.

In the lower branch, however, it is thought that Howard W. Smith will be re-elected president and Captain Albert Bryan vice president, without opposition. The clerks, Daniel R. Stansbury, in common council, and Luther H. Thompson, in the board of aldermen, will have no opposition or re-election.

Appointments for council committees will not be made at the noon meeting Friday, which will have as its sole purpose organization, but will be announced at the next regular meeting.

ALL IN TEMPERATURE

Hot Sunday Followed By Rain and Cooling Breezes at an Early Hour This Morning.

The weather for the most part yesterday was uncomfortably warm, but between three and four o'clock in the afternoon clouds formed in the northwestern heavens and there was every indication that a thunder storm was about to break over the city. The cloud, however, moved north of this city, striking Washington where there was a heavy downpour of rain, accompanied by winds and considerable thunder and lightning. There was also a fall of hail.

The wind, which had veered to the northwest, brought cooling breezes, and conditions remained comfortable throughout the night.

About two o'clock this morning a rain cloud, accompanied by thunder and lightning, passed over the city, which caused the mercury in the thermometer to fall considerably. The weather today has been pleasant.

The windstorm yesterday afternoon reached a velocity of 51 miles an hour, in Washington, accompanied by sharp lightning and a downpour of rain. It left in its wake a toll of damage that may reach many thousands of dollars. Trees were uprooted, car tires tied up, a builder's shack blown away, two houses struck by lightning, and general havoc prevailed.

The river received the brunt of the blow. During the storm Richard Doyle, accompanied by William R. Adams, and Miss Lillian Amos, was driving his automobile on the pike between Frederick and Baltimore. He lost control of his machine by reason of the blinding wind and Resident of Mount Vernon Neighborhood Fleeced of $2.25 by a Negro.

A young white man, who gave his name as C. P. Cawman, residing near Mount Vernon, came to this city yesterday morning, and at the corner of King and Royal streets met a friend, when Cawman said he wished he could procure two quarts of whisky to take home with him. A negro named Logan Smith, according to the statement of Cawman, overheard the remark, offered to obtain the liquor for him. Cawman gave the negro $2.25, ($2 for the liquor and 25 cents for procuring the same). Smith departed, saying he would be back within ten minutes' time, but failing to reappear at the time stated. Cawman waited about the corner for a while, until realizing he had been lured, he reported the matter to the police.

Smith was arrested and his case came before the Police Court this morning. Smith denied the charge, but Officer Garvey, who was on the opposite side of the street, stated he saw Cawman give Smith some money, but could not tell how much or for what purpose, and that after Smith's arrest, an offer was made to refund the money if proceedings were dropped.

Smith was sent to jail for thirty days for larceny.

HUNTING SEASON

Nimrods Must Secure Licenses From Clerk of Courts

But a few more days remain before the opening of the hunting season in Virginia, and Alexandrians, before being allowed to hunt without molestation from hunting authorities, must secure license from the clerk of the courts. To hunt in one county will cost them $1, and for permission to hunt in any county of the state $3. For non-residents the fee is $10.

It is reported that birds, especially oriolan and reed, are plentiful now in lower Fairfax county, and many local nimrods will hie themselves shortly to the habitat of this species of the feathered race. Game Warden A. J. Payne, of Fairfax county, however, was in this city Saturday and stated that he would keep a strict vigilance for those hunting without requisite licenses.

GOSPEL TENT SERVICES

"How Should the Ministry Be Supported?" Subject for Tonight

"Is God Particular?" was the subject of the discourse delivered by Elder Allen Moore, the pastor of the Takoma Park Seventh Day Adventist Church, at the gospel tent on north Washington street last night. He was listened to with close attention.

The subject tonight will be what the Bible says in regard to the support of the ministry. "How Should the Ministry be Supported." All are cordially invited.

Rain, the car going over an embankment, wrecking the machine. Mr. Doyle, suffering from slight cuts and bruises, Miss Amos and Mr. Adams were taken to the Frederick hospital, where it was found their injuries consisted of lacerated wounds, bruises and severe shock.

The wind overturned a canoe in the Potomac, almost under the Aqueduct Bridge, causing the death of Ralph W. Dowden, 25 years old, and Arthur R. Cowdell, 15 years of age. The young men were in the middle of the river below Aqueduct Bridge when the force of the wind overturned their canoe, and in view of hundreds of persons occupying positions on the shore and in other crafts the two went to their deaths.

Another canoe, containing two young men, was turned over at about the same place. The occupants were good swimmers and swam ashore.

Rain, hail and wind swept over Baltimore and the suburbs yesterday afternoon, coming suddenly from an almost cloudless sky, and accompanied by terrific flashes of lightning inflicting much damage. Many trees were uprooted all over town, while the suburbs suffered more, particularly from the hail which whipped shrubbery to shreds and laid crops low. Several reports were received of barns struck by lightning in the county, followed by fires.

ALEXANDRIA'S EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Will open at 7:45 Sunday evening, Sept. 3d, under the direction of Gypsy Smith Jr., the noted Evangelist of Haddon Heights, N. J.

Services will be held every night each week, excepting Monday, continuing until Oct. 2d, in a large tent with a seating capacity of 2,000 located on upper King Street, between West and Peyton Streets, on the site of the old fairgrounds.

Evangelist Smith is a direct, forcible speaker and it is earnestly hoped that every resident of Alexandria will arrange to attend the meetings and hear him.

The services will be of an entirely undenominational character, the campaign having the hearty endorsement of practically all the various churches in the city.

The singing will be a feature of the services, the evangelist bringing with him his own chorister and pianist.
